Comments of a Bon Vivant:

Savoury depth, liquorice and fine tannins. The estate's emblematic red: pour it with steak frites, grilled duck breast or a spiced veal stew.

Château de la Grave Caractère

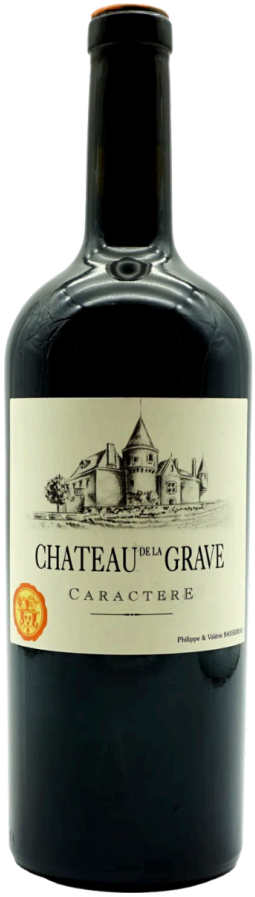

Nestled in a 14th-century castle, Château de la Grave is an exceptional addition to the enotri community, offering a stunning collection of Bordeaux wines faithful to the traditions of this celebrated region of France. Guiding principles include respect for the environment, quality control in the vineyards, and vinification and maturing in the pure Bordeaux tradition.

On the banks of the Bourg, the oldest Roman vineyards on the Atlantic coast of France, the estate is well recognized in French wine guides as an emerging star of the region. The Bassereau family blend Sémillon and Colombard in an exquisite white, while the Merlot-dominated reds are spiced with Cabernet Sauvignon and Malbec.

VITICULTURE

Since 1990, Philippe and Valérie Bassereau have run Château de la Grave, mixing tradition and modernity: 45 hectares of vines all around the château, farmed organically and biodynamically, with ploughing, grass cover and no chemical fertilizers or insecticides.

The wine of the château and the history of the family, mostly Merlot from clay-limestone slopes, with Cabernet Sauvignon for spice and freshness. Deep ruby; frank, fruity and spicy on the nose with discreet oak; fleshy and generous, with lively acidity and a long liquorice finish.
